

Dear Kitec Class Members:

The purpose of this email is to provide Pulte class members with an update on Class Counsel's on-going settlement discussions with Pulte/Del Webb. We have participated in two settlement conferences with Pulte/Del Webb and Judge Bell thus far. We believe that significant progress has been made to date. At the conclusion of the most recent settlement conference, Judge Bell set a status check for Friday, September 14, 2007. In the interim, Class Counsel and Pulte/Del Webb will continue to work together in hopes of reaching a global settlement.

We will continue to keep class members informed on the Pulte negotiations, and on our on-going negotiations with other builders in the Kitec case. Please feel free to contact Class Counsel with any additional questions. You can also visit the Kitec class action website at www.plumbingdefect.com.

Very truly yours,

J. Randall Jones
